Benefits:

The benefits of apple essence in health and beauty are mainly reflected in several aspects:

Antioxidant effect: Apple essence contains unique chemical compounds found in apples, such as polyphenols, which have strong antioxidant properties. These components can help combat damage from free radicals, contributing to cellular health maintenance and slowing down the aging process.

Promotes digestion: The aromatic components in apple essence may stimulate appetite and secretion of digestive juices to a certain extent, helping to promote digestion and improve symptoms of indigestion.

Enhances mental health: The fresh aroma of apples can bring feelings of pleasure and relaxation, aiding in reducing stress and anxiety, thus improving mental health.

Aromatherapy: Apple essence can be used as part of aromatherapy, utilizing its aroma to stimulate senses and emotions, enhancing psychological comfort and promoting a balanced mind-body health.
