The Benefits and Effects of Using Sweet Orange Fragrance in Toys:

- Enhances Toy Appeal: The scent of sweet orange is generally pleasant and can attract children's attention, making the toy more appealing and stimulating their interest and curiosity.
- Increases Enjoyment: The fresh and sweet aroma of sweet orange can enhance the play experience, making children feel happier and more relaxed while playing.
- Promotes Emotional Well-being: Sweet orange fragrance is believed to have soothing and relaxing properties that help regulate emotions, reduce anxiety and stress, and support a positive and joyful emotional state for children.
- Stimulates Sensory Development: Fragrance can stimulate a child's olfactory system, aiding in sensory development. The sweet orange scent provides diverse olfactory experiences, which can improve children's perceptual abilities and cognitive growth.
- Enhances Memory and Cognition: There is a close relationship between scent and memory formation. Sweet orange fragrance might help children better remember certain toys, thereby boosting their memory and cognitive abilities.
- Improves Toy Functionality: Some toys (such as sensory toys) are designed with fragrances to offer a rich sensory experience. Sweet orange fragrance can be part of such toys, adding to their functionality and interactivity.
- Increases Educational Interaction: Sweet orange fragrance can be used in educational toys to combine scent with other learning elements, enhancing children's interest and effectiveness in learning.
