Product Description

Product Description:

Our Candle Fragrances are available in the form of yellow liquid oil, making them easy to mix and blend with your chosen wax. The fragrance oils are perfect for use with soy wax candle scents, allowing you to create custom scents that are unique to your brand or personal preferences.

Our Candle Fragrances are perfect for use in scented jar candles, adding a luxurious touch to any home or space. Our fragrances are designed to provide a long-lasting scent, ensuring that your candles continue to smell great even after they have been burned.

Our Candle Fragrances come with an after-sales service, ensuring that you are completely satisfied with your purchase. We are committed to providing excellent customer service, and are always on hand to answer any questions you may have.

Our Candle Fragrances have a shelf life of 1-3 years, with the opened fragrance oil lasting for one year, and unopened fragrance oil lasting for up to three years. This ensures that you can use your fragrances for multiple candle-making projects, making them a cost-effective solution for anyone looking to create scented candles.

Our Candle Fragrances are oil/water soluble, making them easy to use and blend with other ingredients. Whether you are a seasoned candle maker or a beginner, our fragrances are the perfect addition to your candle-making toolkit.

In summary, our Candle Fragrances are the perfect solution for anyone looking to create beautifully scented candles. With our wide range of fragrances, after-sales service, and oil/water solubility, you can create custom scents that are unique to your brand or personal preferences.

Features:

1. Fresh and natural aroma

Cocoa Vanilla aroma candle aromatherapy has a sweet fruity aroma, fresh and natural smell, which can immediately bring a cool feeling in summer, eliminate fatigue, and relax the body and mind. Whether placed in the living room, bedroom or bathroom, Cocoa Vanilla aroma candle aromatherapy can inject pleasant fragrance into the home environment and create a warm atmosphere.

2. Diverse applications

Cocoa Vanilla aroma candle aromatherapy is not only used for traditional candle making, but can also be widely used in other home aromatherapy products, such as aromatherapy oils, air fresheners, aromatherapy lamps, etc. Its flexibility makes it suitable for a variety of home and commercial environments, from private homes to hotels, SPA and other places, which can effectively enhance the aromatherapy experience of the space.

3. Easy to use and enhance product value

Cocoa Vanilla aroma candle aromatherapy is very simple to use. It is usually added to the candle at a ratio of 1.2%-3% to release a lasting fragrance and create a comfortable environment. Due to its low usage ratio and significant effect, it has become the first choice of many candle manufacturers and DIY enthusiasts, which can enhance the added value of the product.

4. Long-lasting fragrance

The fragrance of Cocoa Vanilla aromatherapy candle essence is long-lasting and not easy to volatilize. It can be evenly distributed when the candle burns, bringing a long-lasting and pleasant fragrance. This persistence enables it to maintain a stable fragrance effect in any occasion, helping people maintain a relaxed mood and create an ideal living space.

5. Natural ingredients, safe and harmless

Many Cocoa Vanilla aromatherapy candle essences use natural plant extracts as raw materials, which are safe and non-toxic, do not contain harmful chemicals, and are suitable for family use, especially for families with children or pets. They can be used with confidence to create a healthy and safe environment.
