Product Description

Product Description:

Green tea flavor is a natural essence extracted from selected high-quality green tea leaves. It is extracted by advanced cold extraction technology to keep the natural aroma of green tea. The aroma of green tea flavor is fresh and pure, with a slight herbal fragrance and a light sweetness. It has a natural fresh feeling and can bring a comfortable and relaxing atmosphere to your living space. This flavor is not only suitable for aromatherapy, air freshener, and personal care, but also perfectly applied to DIY perfume, candles and other handmade products. It is widely used in many occasions such as home, office, and shops.

Features:

Natural and fresh tea fragrance: Green tea flavor uses high-quality green tea leaves as raw materials. The fragrance is fresh and elegant, with herbal fragrance and a slightly sweet scent. The fragrance of green tea is perfectly preserved, fresh and not strong, which can bring a pure and natural sensory experience. The fragrance is not pungent, suitable for consumers who like elegant fragrance.

Long-lasting and uniform aroma release: Green tea flavor is highly volatile, but the aroma lasts for a long time, and can release its natural tea fragrance in the air for a long time. Whether placed in an aromatherapy lamp or added to an air freshener, it can ensure the uniform release of fragrance, filling your space with a natural and fresh atmosphere.

Multifunctional application:

Aromatherapy: Suitable for aromatherapy lamps, aromatherapy diffusers, ultrasonic aromatherapy machines and other equipment, it can evenly distribute the aroma of green tea, help freshen the air, eliminate odors, and create a relaxing space atmosphere.

Air freshener: Spray the fragrance into the air or add it to air fresheners to help freshen the indoor air, remove odors, and fill the space with a fresh green tea scent.

Personal care: It can be added to personal care products such as shower gel, shampoo, and skin care products to bring a fresh aroma to your skin and hair, making the bathing and skin care process more pleasant.

DIY products: Suitable for making homemade perfumes, sachets, candles and other handmade fragrance products, which can help you create a personalized green tea fragrance experience.

Relaxing and soothing effect: The aroma of green tea helps relieve anxiety, relax the body and mind, and improve mood. It is especially suitable for use in stressful work environments or busy lives. It helps improve sleep quality, creates a peaceful environment, and completely relaxes the body and mind, restoring vitality.

Natural, safe, and non-irritating: This fragrance does not contain any harmful chemicals, is mild and non-irritating, and can be used without worrying about negative effects on the body or the environment. This fragrance is also very suitable for families with children or pets. Its mild nature allows it to be widely used in homes, offices, and commercial spaces.

Applications:

Aromatherapy diffusion:

Add 5-10 drops of green tea essence to an aromatherapy lamp, ultrasonic aromatherapy machine or other aromatherapy equipment to release the natural and refreshing green tea aroma when used.

Recommended for use in spaces such as bedrooms, living rooms, bathrooms or offices to help freshen the air and create a comfortable and relaxing environment.

Air freshener and indoor fragrance:

Mix green tea essence with water, put it in a spray bottle, spray it on the room, furniture or clothing, let the green tea aroma permeate the room, freshen the air and eliminate odors.

You can also add the essence to air freshener equipment or diffusers to release the aroma for a long time and keep the space fresh.

Personal care:

Add a few drops of green tea essence to shower gel, shampoo, and skin cream to increase the aromatic experience of the product. The fresh aroma of green tea can make the washing process more pleasant and give people a fresh and relaxing feeling.

Add the essence to body lotion or massage oil to enhance the soothing effect and bring a refreshing aroma experience.

DIY handmade fragrance products:

Green tea essence is very suitable for making perfumes, candles, sachets, etc. Mixing the essence with base oils, candle wax or other raw materials can create a unique personalized fragrance and create your own green tea perfume or candle.
