Features:

Powerful decontamination ability

In addition to the aroma, Scented Tea fragrance also has natural decontamination properties, which can work with cleaning ingredients to help remove oil, stubborn stains and food residues.

Long-lasting aroma release

Scented Tea fragrance can release fragrance for a long time, keep the air in the clean environment fresh, and provide a long-lasting fragrance experience.

Natural and harmless

Scented Tea fragrance is usually extracted from natural plants, has low irritation, is more environmentally friendly and safer than some chemical fragrances, and is suitable for household cleaning products.

Improve cleaning efficiency

Scented Tea fragrance not only increases the aroma of the detergent, but also enhances the decontamination effect of the detergent through its natural acidic properties, making the cleaning work more efficient.

Wide applicability

Scented Tea fragrance is suitable for a variety of cleaning products, such as kitchen cleaners, dishwashing detergents, floor cleaners, air fresheners, etc., which can meet various cleaning needs in home and commercial environments.
