Product descriptions

For those struggling to maintain a positive outlook, Chalkia suggests lighting citrus-scented candles, which are proven to "lift your spirits and boost your energy." She recommends the Choisy candle by Diptyque, which smells like the citrusy fruit and leaves of an orange tree, or the zesty True Grace Wild Lime Classic Candle for a bit of energy stimulation. There's also the zingy, lemony NEOM Happiness Scented Candle, which she says could boost positivity, as its name suggests.

Here are a few more candles with aroma notes proven to calm anxiety so you can create your most relaxing atmosphere, whether you're at home or abroad.
