Product Description

Concentrated CK Fragrance Oils For Diffuser Reed sticks Free Samples

LDZ-PL30180

Product Description:

CK Aromatherapy Essential Oil is specially crafted for aromatherapy diffusers. It is far more than a simple aroma. It represents a confident, independent and unconventional attitude towards life. We draw inspiration from the classic CK One fragrance and incorporate its unique neutral charm into the essential oil, aiming to inject the vitality and free spirit of the modern city into your private space. Unique fragrance, transcending gender boundaries: Unlike the common single fragrance on the market, CK Aromatherapy Essential Oil stands out with its iconic genderless fragrance. The top note is fresh and jumping bergamot and pineapple, which instantly awakens the senses; the middle note cleverly combines the tranquility of green tea and the sensuality of jasmine, bringing a delicate balance; the base note ends with calm sandalwood and warm musk, leaving an unforgettable long aftertaste. This unique layering allows the fragrance to evolve in your space instead of remaining unchanged.

Product Feature:

Designed for use in diffusers, CK essential oils are designed to bring a signature freshness and vitality to your space. Inspired by the classic CK One fragrance, they combine a modern, sophisticated and delightful scent experience.

We insist on using the highest quality fragrances and essential oils to ensure that every drop is pure and flawless, and provide highly concentrated formulas to make the fragrance last longer and diffuse more evenly. It can not only cover up odors, but also create an atmosphere full of personality and comfort. Whether it is to relax, concentrate, or entertain friends, it can make your space unique.

Choose CK aromatherapy essential oils and let every breath you take become a self-expression.

FUNCTIONS & APPLICATIONS

The application of CK essential oils is far more than simple aromatherapy diffusion. Its core difference lies in its iconic gender-neutral fragrance, which breaks the boundaries of traditional fragrances and gives the product unlimited possibilities, allowing users to integrate CK's modern spirit into all aspects of life in a more creative and personalized way.

Innovative fragrance diffusion experience:
Smart home integration	In addition to conventional ultrasonic and waterless diffusers, CK essential oils can be used with smart fragrance devices to achieve timing and remote control of fragrance concentration, creating an intelligent home fragrance system.
In-car luxury	Not only does it cover up odors, CK essential oils give car aromatherapy a unique taste, making commuting or self-driving travel a confident and energetic olfactory journey.
Clothing fragrance companion	A small amount of laundry detergent or dryer balls can bring a lasting CK freshness to clothes, allowing every day to exude a unique personal charm.
Personalized DIY fragrance customization
Homemade scented candles/wax melts	Say goodbye to the same old commercial aromatherapy, use CK essential oils to make scented candles with the brand's soul, and enjoy the fun of DIY and exclusive fragrance.
Space spray sublimation	Mix with pure water to easily make personalized indoor spray, which can instantly refresh the air. It can also be used on bedding, curtains, etc., bringing a fresh and personalized space experience.
Body care highlights	Add a small amount to unscented body lotion or massage oil to DIY body care products with CK's unique fragrance, so that the skin is moisturized while leaving an unforgettable exclusive mark (please be sure to dilute and perform a skin test).
Creating a commercial space atmosphere
Brand olfactory recognition	Commercial places such as hotels, boutiques, and gyms can use the modernity and neutral charm of CK essential oils to create a unique olfactory recognition system, enhance brand style and customer experience, and convey a young and fashionable brand image.
