Product Description

Brand Paco Rabanne Fragrance Oil For Perfume With Free Sample 10ml/bottle
LDZ-PL10119

Product Description:

Paco Rabanne Perfume Oil is a fragrance masterpiece that embodies the essence of the brand. It is created for you who pursue the ultimate fragrance experience and personal expression. We present Paco Rabanne's iconic avant-garde and luxury in a highly concentrated oil form, and every drop contains undiluted pure charm.

The uniqueness of this perfume oil lies in its excellent fragrance holding ability and deep fragrance layering. It can blend more gently into the skin, reduce the evaporation of fragrance, and bring a private and long-lasting sensory journey. Whether it is its bold sensuality, dazzling gorgeousness, or rebellious elegance, it will bloom on your skin with a richer and more seductive fragrance over time.

Paco Rabanne Perfume Oil is not only a secret weapon for professional perfumers, but also a creative canvas for perfume lovers. You can touch it directly to your pulse and enjoy the pure richness; or you can use it as a precious fragrance base and blend it into homemade perfumes or daily care products to give them the unique luxury mark of Paco Rabanne.

Product Feature:

Top notes: a bold statement	The opening of a perfume oil is like a fashion statement from Paco Rabanne, bold and impactful. This is usually a combination of spicy spices (such as fiery cinnamon, vibrant cardamom), bright citrus (such as blood orange, grapefruit) and a hint of fresh mint, instantly igniting the senses. It is confident and slightly provocative, designed to capture attention instantly, and with its unique avant-garde attitude, it leaves a deep first impression, heralding an extraordinary fragrance experience is about to unfold.
Middle notes: luxurious core, charming bloom	When the sharpness of the top notes fades, the middle notes appear like a star in the center of the stage, showing the luxurious and sensual soul of Paco Rabanne perfumes. At this time, the rich floral notes (such as rose and tuberose) are cleverly combined with warm resins (such as amber) or soft leather notes. The middle note is the heart of the perfume, which gives the fragrance depth and breadth, exuding seductive charm, both classic elegance and modern tension, making the wearer exude irresistible attraction.
Base notes: deep aftertaste, eternal personality	The final chapter of the fragrance is the calm and lingering base notes, which carry the modern, avant-garde and highly recognizable essence of the perfume. Deep woody notes (such as agarwood and sandalwood), sweet vanilla and tonka beans, or mineral notes with a unique metallic feel, together build a solid and sexy base. The base notes are like a brand, leaving a lasting and powerful mark on the skin. It is not only the perfect ending to the fragrance, but also the final interpretation of the Paco Rabanne brand spirit, highlighting the wearer's unique personality and eternal charm.

Technical Parameter:

Its high concentration ensures the depth and persistence of the fragrance. It has a slower evaporation rate than traditional alcohol perfumes, and the fragrance can blend more closely with the skin, showing a rich and three-dimensional fragrance layer. It accurately restores the avant-garde, luxurious and bold olfactory essence of Paco Rabanne, making each use a powerful self-declaration, whether spicy, woody, floral or oriental, it can be fully displayed, giving the user a unique personality identity.

Fragrance Oil Percentage	Definition: The percentage of pure fragrance oil (aromatic compounds) present in the final product.
	Typical Range for Perfume:15% - 40% (or more). For Eau de Parfum (EDP), it's typically 10-25%.
	Impact: Higher concentration generally means greater intensity, sillage , and longevity.
Olfactive Family	Spicy, woody, floral or oriental
Specific Gravity	Typical Range for Alcohol-based Perfumes:Usually around 0.802 to 0.906 g/mL
pH Value	Often slightly acidic to neutral (e.g., 5.2 - 7.3)
Color and Clarity	pale yellow to colorless
Shelf Life	24-36 months from manufacturing

FUNCTIONS & APPLICATIONS:

FUNCTIONS
Extreme fragrance intensity and persistence	As a highly concentrated perfume oil, it can provide pure fragrance intensity and excellent fragrance persistence far exceeding EDT or EDP. The oily texture allows it to adhere to the skin for a longer time, slowly releasing the fragrance, ensuring that Paco Rabanne's iconic luxury and bold fragrance can continue to bloom all day long, bringing a profound and lasting olfactory experience.
Faithfully restore the brand's core fragrance	Accurately capture and concentrate the core essence of Paco Rabanne's classic fragrances (such as 1 Million, Olympéa, Invictus, etc.). This means that perfume oil can perfectly reproduce its bold, sexy, avant-garde and recognizable fragrance characteristics, whether it is spicy wood, savory flowers and fruits, or rich oriental notes, it can be presented vividly, ensuring the pure inheritance of the brand's DNA.
Enhance the fragrance level and ductility	The oily texture allows the fragrance molecules to better blend naturally with the skin, reduce volatility, and increase the ductility and level of the fragrance. Over time, perfume oil will show a richer olfactory dimension on the skin, making the evolution of the fragrance more delicate and fascinating, bringing a more private and sensual fragrance experience.
Versatile fragrance base	In addition to direct application, this perfume oil is also an ideal base for high-end fragrance customization. Its stable formula and high concentration enable it to be used as a core fragrance material, mixed with base oil, anhydrous alcohol, etc. to create personalized perfume sprays, ball perfumes or solid balms to meet the needs of professional perfumery and personal DIY.

APPLICATIONS:
Personal luxury fragrance	The most direct application is as a concentrated personal fragrance, applied in small amounts to pulse points such as the wrists, neck or behind the ears. Its oily texture can fit the skin more closely, forming a long-lasting and skin-friendly fragrance film, bringing a private and lasting seductive scent, which is very suitable for people who pursue a unique and long-lasting fragrance experience.
Haute couture perfume DIY and blending	It is an ideal choice for homemade perfumes and fragrance products. Whether it is a professional perfumer or a perfume enthusiast, it can be diluted in perfume alcohol or odorless carrier oil to formulate a perfume that meets the concentration and form of personal preference (such as EDP, ball oil, solid perfume), realizing a truly personalized fragrance customization.
Fragrance product fragrance	It can be cleverly integrated into daily care products such as unscented body lotion, moisturizing oil, shower gel or shampoo, infusing these products with Paco Rabanne's iconic luxurious fragrance. This application can make the body exude a unified and exquisite fragrance from head to toe, enhancing the ritual and pleasure of daily care.
Home Fragrance Extension	After proper dilution and professional formula adjustment, Paco Rabanne perfume oil can also be used to make high-end indoor fragrance products, such as scented candles, fireless fragrance (diffuser stone, rattan diffuser) or clothing fragrance spray. This allows the brand's luxurious fragrance to extend to the home space, creating a unique and stylish living atmosphere.
Fragrance etiquette and superposition	In specific social occasions or important events, perfume oil can be used as the base layer of fragrance superposition, before the same series or complementary alcohol-based perfume, to enhance the depth, durability and overall effect of the fragrance, creating a richer and more layered olfactory impression.

Product Category	Specific Applications	Primary Purpose/Effect
Fine Perfumery	Eau de Parfum, Eau de Toilette, Extrait de Parfum, Colognes (for both men and women).	Core ingredient for romantic, oriental, or warm woody/amber fragrances; enhances luxury and complexity.
Personal Care	Body lotions, shower gels, scented soaps, hair mists, bath oils, hand creams.	Imparts a luxurious and lingering romantic scent to daily grooming routines, elevating user indulgence.
Home Fragrance	Scented candles, reed diffusers, room sprays, potpourri, linen sprays.	Creates a cozy, inviting, and intimate atmosphere in living spaces; ideal for bedrooms or entertaining areas.
Gifting & Luxury	Components in high-end gift sets, bespoke fragrance creations, luxury packaging.	Elevates the perceived value and emotional appeal of products, making them ideal for special occasions.
