Product Description

Concentrated Rose Oud Fragrance For Diffuser Air Freshener Hotel With Free Sample LDZ-PL31536

Product Description:

Rose Oud Fragrance stands as an exquisitely crafted concentrate designed to transform any space into an oasis of personalized luxury and sophisticated ambiance when diffused. This particular blend is a masterful fusion of two of perfumery's most revered and contrasting notes: the timeless romance of rose and the profound, animalic depth of oud.

What truly elevates our Rose Oud Fragrance beyond a mere scent is its inherent capacity for individualized expression and nuanced interpretation. Unlike simpler, linear fragrances, this composition offers a dynamic and evolving olfactory journey, allowing the user to experience different facets of its complexity with each breath. The rose component is not a singular, flat note; rather, it's a harmonious blend of velvety, dewy, and subtly spicy rose varieties, evoking an authentic and multi-dimensional floral heart. This rich rose acts as a luminous counterpoint to the powerful oud.

Our oud is meticulously sourced, capturing its woody, leathery, smoky, and subtly sweet facets without being overwhelmingly medicinal or harsh. This thoughtful balance enables the Rose Oud Fragrance to be incredibly versatile. It can create an atmosphere of regal grandeur in a formal setting, or evoke a sense of intimate warmth and exotic allure in a more personal space. The user isn't just diffusing a scent; they're curating an experience, choosing to emphasize the soft elegance of the rose or the commanding presence of the oud based on their mood and desired environment. This fragrance is an invitation to personal narrative, allowing each individual to perceive and appreciate its opulence in their own unique way, making every diffusion a uniquely tailored sensory event.

Product Feature:

Rose Oud Fragrance is a fragrance specially formulated for diffusers, with a luxurious and layered woody rose at its core. This fragrance perfectly blends the richness and softness of Bulgarian rose with the deep mystery of Oud, aiming to create a noble, exotic and intoxicating sensory experience. It goes beyond the scope of traditional single floral fragrances and shows extraordinary complexity and richness. The fragrance is characterized by its harmonious duality - the fragrance of roses and the calmness and restraint of Oud complement each other, achieving a perfect balance of power and softness. This contrast allows the fragrance to continue to show new charms as it diffuses in the space.

Top Notes	At first smell, fresh and slightly spicy raspberries and saffron come to your face, which lay a bright and exotic prelude to the upcoming roses, instantly grabbing the senses.
Heart Notes	The scent then transitions to the core of luxurious Bulgarian rose, whose rich sweet floral scent is intertwined with deep patchouli and cedar. Rose is now lifted by woody notes, making it even more elegant.
Base Notes	Finally, the scent settles into rich and lasting oud (agarwood), supplemented by warm amber and soft musk. The animal and smoky feel of agarwood is perfectly presented in the base notes, giving the fragrance extreme depth and elegant aftertaste, which is unforgettable for a long time.
