Product Description

Concentrated Black Rose Fragrance Essence For Scented Candle Free Sample LDZ-PL40070

Product Description:

Immerse yourself in an aura of refined mystique with our Concentrated Black Rose Flavor, meticulously crafted for the discerning candle artisan. This exquisite fragrance captures the elusive essence of a black rose at its peak, offering a complex and captivating olfactory journey that transcends the ordinary.

Our concentrated formula ensures an exceptional scent throw and remarkable longevity, allowing for a truly immersive aromatic experience that fills any space with its captivating presence. Ideal for crafting candles that exude sophistication, introspection, and a touch of dramatic flair, this black rose fragrance is a testament to the artistry of perfumery, transforming a simple flame into a beacon of intoxicating beauty.

Black Rose Essence LDZ-PL40070

Product Feature:

At its heart, the aroma unfolds with the deep, velvety richness of darkest rose petals, evoking a sense of opulent romance and timeless elegance. This foundational note is expertly interwoven with subtle undertones of earthy patchouli and smoky oud, lending an intriguing depth that prevents the scent from being overtly floral and instead anchors it with a sophisticated, almost gothic allure. As the candle burns, delicate hints of spiced plum and ripe cassis emerge, adding a nuanced sweetness that brightens the composition without detracting from its inherent richness. A whisper of warm amber and soft musk in the dry down provides a lingering, sensual finish, creating an atmosphere of luxurious comfort and enigmatic charm.

Top Notes	Unfurl with a delicate burst of spiced plum and cassis, providing a bright yet subtle fruity introduction.
Heart Notes	The dominant and rich aroma of velvety black rose petals takes center stage, imbued with earthy patchouli and smoky oud for profound depth
Base Notes	Settle into a warm and lingering embrace of soft musk and amber, leaving a sophisticated and sensual trail that evokes an air of enigmatic elegance.

FUNCTIONS & APPLICATIONS

Our Concentrated Black Rose Flavor is engineered for superior performance in scented candle applications, offering a range of functional benefits that elevate the end product. This meticulously formulated fragrance ensures exceptional heat stability, preventing degradation or alteration of the scent profile during the candle's burning lifecycle. Unlike lesser quality alternatives, our concentrate maintains its complex aromatic integrity even under sustained heat, guaranteeing a consistent and reliable olfactory experience from the initial light to the final flicker. Furthermore, its high flash point ensures safety during manufacturing and use, adhering to rigorous industry standards. The concentrated nature of this flavor means that less is required to achieve a robust and diffusive scent throw, optimizing cost-effectiveness for manufacturers while delivering an impactful fragrance that fills a room effectively. Its superior solubility in various wax types, including soy, paraffin, coconut, and blends, allows for seamless integration without compromising the wax's texture or burn quality. This ensures a clean and even burn, free from common issues like tunneling or poor scent diffusion, ultimately enhancing the overall consumer experience and brand reputation.

The Concentrated Black Rose Flavor is an ideal choice for crafting a diverse range of high-end scented candle products designed to evoke a sense of luxury, mystery, and sophisticated romance. Its enigmatic and multi-layered scent profile lends itself perfectly to premium artisanal candles, where the emphasis is on unique, captivating fragrances that stand apart from mass-market offerings. Imagine a "Midnight Bloom" collection, where this essence becomes the cornerstone, creating an atmosphere of elegant intrigue in living spaces, bedrooms, or even intimate dining settings. Beyond traditional pillar and container candles, its versatility extends to votive candles, wax melts, and tealights, allowing for curated scent experiences in smaller formats. This fragrance is also perfectly suited for seasonal collections, particularly those focusing on autumn or winter themes, where its rich, warm, and slightly dark undertones can complement cozy, contemplative moods. For boutique hotels, spas, and high-end retail environments, candles infused with this black rose flavor can create an unforgettable brand signature, leaving a lasting impression of refined sophistication and unique allure.
