Artificial Blackcurrant & Rose Fragrance Flavor For Reed Sticks & Diffuser LDZ-PL31559

Product Description:

This fragrance designed for diffusers and diffusers cleverly combines the alluring fruity aroma of blackcurrant with the rich floral scent of Bulgarian rose to create a feast for the senses. It is not just a simple fragrance combination, but also an ultimate pursuit of spatial aesthetics and olfactory enjoyment.

The formula of this fragrance has been carefully formulated to ensure that it can release fragrance stably and lastingly in diffusers and diffusers. Whether placed in the living room, bedroom, or study, it can transform the space into a sensory palace full of pleasure and harmony. The interweaving of blackcurrant and rose can not only effectively enhance the indoor atmosphere, but also soothe the mind, bringing tranquility and relaxation.

Blackcurrant & Rose

LDZ-PL31559

Product Feature:

The overall fragrance of this fragrance presents a complex beauty of fruity flowers, with the freshness and sweetness of berries and the depth and tenderness of roses. The fragrance is rich and layered. As time goes by, different fragrances bloom layer by layer, bringing a continuous pleasant experience.

Top note:	At the first encounter, the bright scent of blackcurrant hits your nose. Its unique sweetness and astringency are intertwined, just like fresh berries picked in the morning, full of vitality and vitality, instantly awakening the senses, and injecting a touch of playfulness and agility into the space.
Middle note:	Following closely, the classic fragrance of Bulgarian Rose gradually blooms. As a classic representative of floral notes, its fragrance is mellow and elegant, with rich layers. It has both the freshness and sweetness when it first blooms, and the warmth and sensuality after gradual precipitation. The addition of rose adds a sense of maturity and romance to the liveliness of blackcurrant, and constructs the main body of the fragrance.
Base note	At the end of the fragrance, the aftertaste of blackcurrant and rose is harmoniously intertwined, bringing a lasting and delicate fragrance. It may be accompanied by a subtle woody or musky undertone (the specific ingredients are not detailed, but such fragrances usually have basic fixed spices), adding stability and depth to the overall fragrance, making the aroma linger in the space, leaving a warm and elegant memory.

Technical Parameter:

Fragrance Notes	Complex floral-woody-amber
Appearance	Transparent to slightly yellow clear liquid, no visible suspended matter or precipitation

FUNCTIONS & APPLICATIONS

This blackcurrant and rose diffuser fragrance is designed for diffusers and diffusers. Its core function is to create a pleasant atmosphere and enhance the quality of space. It is not just a simple fragrance product, but also an important part of mood regulation and sensory experience in modern home environments.

The fragrance uses a unique volatile formula to allow the fragrance molecules to diffuse evenly and continuously into the air. The compound tonal properties of the blackcurrant fruit fragrance and the Bulgarian rose fragrance can effectively cover up odors, purify the space, and bring a fresh olfactory experience to users. At the same time, this carefully formulated fragrance has the effect of soothing emotions and relieving stress. Whether it is fatigue after work or worries in life, they can be released and comforted in the diffused fragrance.

In addition, this fragrance also plays an important role in enhancing the aesthetics of the home. It can transform a plain space into a place full of personality and taste, creating a variety of atmospheres such as warm and romantic, quiet and elegant, or vibrant, to meet the needs of different scenes and moods. Its long-lasting and stable fragrance diffusion effect ensures that the fragrance can stay for a long time without frequent replenishment, providing users with a convenient and efficient fragrance solution.

Blackcurrant and rose diffuser essence is widely used in various diffuser products with its unique fragrance and excellent diffuser performance, aiming to bring a pleasant fragrance experience to different spaces.

First, in the field of home fragrance products, it is the core ingredient of reed diffusers and fireless aromatherapy. By injecting the essence into the bottle, the reed absorbs the fragrance liquid and slowly releases the fragrance, which is suitable for private spaces such as living rooms, bedrooms, and study rooms to create a warm and comfortable home atmosphere.

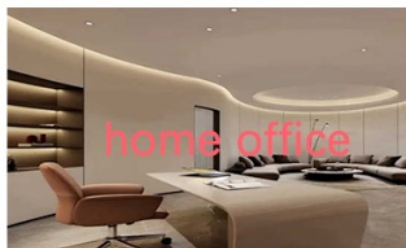

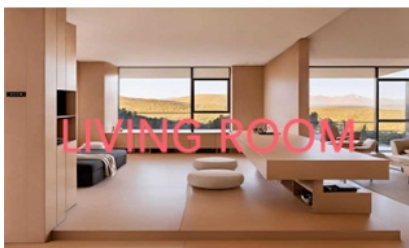

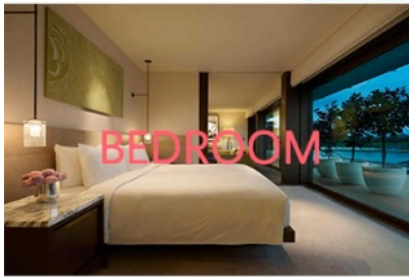

Second, in terms of commercial space fragrance, this fragrance can be used in hotel lobby diffuser systems, boutique fragrance devices, or beauty salon aromatherapy machines. In these places, it can effectively enhance the customer's sensory experience and enhance the brand image.

In addition, the fragrance is also suitable for car fragrance pendants or small car diffusers to provide drivers with a fresh and pleasant driving environment and relieve travel fatigue.

These applications together demonstrate the diverse potential of blackcurrant and rose diffuser essence in improving the quality of life and commercial value.
