Product Description

Concentrated Night Jasmine Fragrance Essence For Shampoo & Body Wash Products LDZ-PL20077

Product Description:

An alluring and captivating aroma, our Concentrated Night Jasmine Fragrance Essence is a luxurious tribute to the intoxicating beauty of a moonlit garden. This complex and sophisticated blend captures the true essence of night-blooming jasmine (Cestrum nocturnum), a flower renowned for its powerfully sweet and narcotic scent that becomes most prominent after dusk.

The fragrance opens with an initial burst of airy ozone and dewy green notes, evoking the cool, fresh air of a peaceful night. This top accord is a subtle nod to the natural environment where the flower thrives. The heart of the fragrance then blossoms with the main event: a rich, heady night jasmine accord. This is a lush, creamy white floral that is both sweet and subtly indolic, a signature characteristic that gives it a seductive, slightly animalic depth. It's an unforgettable aroma that is deeply floral without being cloying.

As the scent settles, a warm and sensual base of soft musk and clean wood emerges. This grounding finish provides a professional, long-lasting dry-down that ensures the fragrance lingers on the skin and hair, leaving a trail of elegance and mystery. This essence is designed to transform a simple shower into a truly enchanting sensory ritual, making it the perfect choice for high-end personal care products.

Product Feature:

Our Concentrated Night Jasmine Fragrance Essence is an enchanting and sophisticated aroma crafted to evoke the mystique of a moonlit garden. This fragrance is a masterful composition, with each note playing a crucial role in its captivating and long-lasting scent profile.

Top note:	The fragrance begins with a fresh and ethereal opening of airy ozone and dewy green notes. This top accord is designed to mimic the cool, crisp atmosphere of a late evening, creating a sense of purity and anticipation. It provides a clean, watery freshness that is both uplifting and intriguing, preparing the senses for the floral heart to follow.
Middle note:	The true essence of the fragrance blossoms in its heart with a rich, narcotic accord of night-blooming jasmine. Unlike common jasmine, this note is deeply floral, creamy, and lush, with a distinctly heady character. It is an authentic and powerful white floral that is both intensely sweet and subtly alluring, capturing the intoxicating aroma that is most potent after dusk. This is the star of the composition, providing the fragrance with its unique and unforgettable personality.
Base note	The scent gracefully settles into a sophisticated and enduring base of soft musk and clean wood. This finish provides a warm, elegant foundation that anchors the more volatile floral notes. The musk adds a smooth, clean texture, while the subtle woody undertones lend a touch of earthy sophistication. Together, they ensure the fragrance has a lasting presence on the skin and hair, leaving a trail of quiet luxury and elegance.

FUNCTIONS & APPLICATIONS

The primary function of our Concentrated Night Jasmine Fragrance Essence is to deliver a deeply sophisticated and memorable olfactory experience that elevates the perception and value of a product. This fragrance serves as a key differentiator in a crowded market, imbuing shampoos and body washes with a sense of luxury and elegance. Its unique, night-blooming jasmine profile is particularly effective at creating an emotional connection with consumers, transforming a simple daily routine into a lavish, sensory ritual. The essence is highly functional, formulated to be stable and long-lasting within a wide range of cosmetic bases. It efficiently masks the raw, chemical-like smells of base ingredients, ensuring the final product presents a consistent and pleasant aroma from the moment of unboxing to the end of use. Its superior retention on the skin and hair ensures the fragrance lingers gently after rinsing, providing a sustained and positive user experience. This essence is also designed to be non-discoloring, preserving the visual integrity of clear or lightly colored formulations.

This versatile Concentrated Night Jasmine Fragrance Essence is specifically designed for seamless integration into various personal care and cosmetic products. Its most common and ideal applications are in shampoos and body washes, where its captivating scent elevates the standard cleansing process into a premium, spa-like experience. The fragrance's sophisticated character also makes it an excellent choice for liquid hand soaps, providing a touch of luxury to a frequent routine. Beyond these core uses, it is perfectly suited for hair conditioners and hair masks, where the scent can leave a lasting impression of elegance and freshness. Its rich, floral profile is also highly effective in formulating luxurious bath bombs and bubble baths, where the aroma is a central component of the relaxing experience. For skincare, it can be used in body lotions and creams to create a complementary scent layering effect, ensuring the fragrance is present throughout the day.
