Product Description

Concentrated Perfume Cha-nel Homme Sport Fragrance Oil For Perfume Making/Production With Free Sample

Product Code: LDZ-PL10265

Cha-nel Homme Sport Fragrance Oil is a concentrated perfume essence designed for manufacturers and perfumers developing fresh, energetic, and sophisticated men's fragrances. Inspired by the dynamic character of a modern sporty fragrance, this essence combines crisp citrus brightness with aromatic freshness and a smooth woody-amber foundation. Its overall personality is active and confident while maintaining a polished, refined character suitable for contemporary men's perfume collections.

The fragrance opens with a lively impression that can bring together citrus, fresh aquatic, and subtly spicy nuances, creating an invigorating introduction. The heart develops into a clean aromatic character with carefully balanced herbal and floral facets, adding dimension without making the composition feel heavy. As the fragrance settles, warm woods, amber, musk, and soft tonka-like nuances provide a comfortable dry-down with a masculine and subtly sensual character.

| Fragrance Notes         | Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Top Notes (Opening)     | The fragrance opens with orange, grapefruit, lemon, bergamot, and fresh aquatic nuances. These bright elements create an invigorating first impression, combining juicy citrus freshness with a cool, clean sensation. Grapefruit adds a slightly bitter-sparkling edge, giving the opening greater energy and definition.          |
| Middle Notes (Heart)    | The heart develops through pepper, lavender, rosemary, geranium, and aromatic herbal accords. Pepper introduces a subtle spicy lift, while lavender and rosemary provide a crisp aromatic character. Geranium contributes a refined floral facet, creating balance between the fresh opening and deeper woody foundation.           |
| Base Notes (Foundation) | The dry-down features cedarwood, sandalwood, vetiver, tonka bean, amber, and white musk. These notes create a smooth, warm, and polished foundation. Cedarwood and vetiver add masculine woody depth, while tonka bean and amber provide gentle sweetness and warmth. Musk rounds the composition with a clean, comfortable finish. |

Applications & Functions:

Cha-nel Homme Sport Fragrance Oil functions as a concentrated fragrance ingredient for developing fresh, dynamic, and contemporary masculine perfume compositions. Its primary role is to establish a recognizable scent identity through the interaction of sparkling citrus, aromatic herbs, subtle spice, and smooth woody accords. This layered structure allows the fragrance to create a lively opening while gradually developing greater depth and warmth.

As a formulation ingredient, it can work as a main fragrance accord, supporting note, or blending foundation, depending on the desired product concept. Its fresh character can brighten richer compositions, while woody and amber facets provide structure and balance. The essence also helps perfumers create different sensory directions, from sporty and energetic to polished and sophisticated.

For fragrance manufacturers, another important function is product differentiation. Its versatile masculine profile can become the foundation of a recognizable fragrance identity across a product range. Perfumers can further modify it with citrus, aromatic, woody, spicy, marine, or musky materials to create exclusive variations. This makes it a practical ingredient for brands seeking a modern masculine scent with both freshness and depth.

Cha-nel Homme Sport Fragrance Oil is mainly used in fine fragrance and men's personal-care manufacturing. It is suitable for producing Eau de Parfum (EDP), Eau de Toilette (EDT), perfume oils, roll-on fragrances, body sprays, body mists, hair perfumes, solid perfumes, and scented body oils, according to the requirements of the finished formulation.

Its crisp citrus-aromatic character also works well in men's grooming products, including aftershave products, shower gels, body lotions, beard-care products, and other fragranced cosmetic formulations. The sporty personality makes it particularly appropriate for products positioned around active lifestyles, freshness, confidence, and contemporary masculinity.

For commercial fragrance development, the essence can be incorporated into private-label perfume collections, boutique men's fragrance lines, seasonal launches, gift sets, travel-size products, and OEM/ODM customized projects. Perfumers may combine it with bergamot, grapefruit, lavender, rosemary, geranium, cedarwood, sandalwood, vetiver, patchouli, amber, or musk accords to create differentiated versions.
