Product Description

Concentrated Body Using Perfume Oil Knights Templar Perfumes Oil For Perfume Making / Production With Free Sample

Product Code: LDZ-PL11917

The Knights Templar fragrance oil is a dark, atmospheric, and deeply contemplative oriental-woody composition inspired by ancient history and solemn sacred spaces. Rather than relying on the bright fruitiness or sweet gourmand warmth found in modern mainstream profiles, it centers around a solemn profile of aged patchouli and heavy church frankincense that evokes stone architecture and medieval sanctuaries. Distinctively, its drydown is anchored by dry cedarwood, earthy moss, and a unique soft wool accord—a specialized textile note that adds an intimate, physical warmth mimicking historical garments against the skin. Tailored specifically for niche, gothic, or ritualistic artisanal lines, this potent oil offers exceptional resinous depth and heavy longevity. It is ideal for independent perfumers crafting meditative fine fragrances, roll-on body oils, or atmospheric personal care products that demand a mysterious, smoky, and uncompromisingly historic character.

Applications & Functions:

The primary function of this heavy, atmospheric oil is to act as an immersive, resinous scent compound engineered for specialty, niche, and gothic perfumery. Chemically, it functions as a potent fixative base rich in natural heavy resins, church frankincense, and aged patchouli, which anchor volatile elements to guarantee prolonged skin adherence and slow evaporation. Its complex molecular matrix provides a structured, multi-tiered olfactory transition from cold, architectural stone and dry woods into an intimate, textile-like wool accord and deep earthiness. As a concentrated oil medium, it functions seamlessly across oil-based roll-on carriers and high-proof alcohol solutions, blending evenly without separation while preserving the integrity of dark, non-commercial raw aromatic profiles.

This specialized oil is heavily utilized by independent perfumers and boutique production lines for crafting dark fine fragrances, ritualistic Eau de Parfums, and long-wearing roll-on body oils. Beyond direct personal scenting, its deeply historical, smoky character makes it a favorite for formulating niche personal care lines, including luxury beard oils, solid balms, and heavy moisturizing body products intended for cold-weather seasons. In addition to body applications, it is widely applied in artisanal home fragrance production—such as specialized amber-glass room sprays, meditative oil burners, and gothic-themed soy wax candles—where its robust frankincense and cedar composition delivers a powerful, long-lasting ambient throw that evokes sacred medieval spaces.
