Product Description

Concentrated IFRA Body Using Perfume Oil Valentino Donna Born in Roma Fragrance Oil For Perfume Making / Production With Free Sample

Product Code: LDZ-PL12417

It is an elegant floral-amber fragrance that combines modern femininity with a bold, sophisticated personality. Inspired by the contrast between Rome's timeless heritage and contemporary urban culture, this fragrance presents a captivating balance of luminous florals, warm sweetness, and distinctive woody accords. The composition opens with an enchanting jasmine character, bringing a rich, radiant floral impression that immediately captures attention. At its heart, cashmeran introduces a smooth woody texture with subtle spicy nuances, adding depth and a fashionable edge to the floral composition. As the fragrance develops, bourbon vanilla reveals a creamy, warm, and slightly smoky sweetness, creating a sensual and memorable dry-down. The interaction between delicate floral elegance and modern woody warmth gives this fragrance its distinctive olfactory identity. Unlike conventional sweet floral scents, it maintains a sophisticated balance between softness, intensity, and contemporary appeal. With its luxurious character and versatile fragrance profile, this concentrated perfume oil is an excellent choice for developing premium women's perfumes, fashionable signature scents, and exclusive private-label fragrance collections.

The fragrance oil provides perfume manufacturers with a versatile aromatic foundation for developing products that emphasize elegance, individuality, and modern luxury. It is suitable for developing a variety of premium personal fragrance products. Its fruity-floral character and warm vanilla foundation make it particularly appropriate for eau de parfum, eau de toilette, concentrated perfume oils, and extrait de parfum formulations. Perfume manufacturers can incorporate this fragrance direction into alcohol-based perfume sprays, roll-on perfume oils, and customized signature scent collections. Its radiant jasmine character works beautifully in feminine fragrance concepts, while the combination of cashmeran, guaiac wood, and bourbon vanilla provides an appealing foundation for more intense and sensual perfume variations. Beyond traditional perfumery, it can also inspire coordinated scented products such as body mists, perfumed body lotions, shower gels, and other personal care formulations, provided the fragrance is suitable for the intended application. For private-label manufacturers and emerging perfume brands, this fragrance profile offers opportunities to develop attractive collections targeting consumers who appreciate modern floral elegance with a warm, sweet finish.
